

Archaeopress Do's and Do not's

The ebooks and materials from Archaeopress is licensed through a subscription by the institute.

Therefore, they do fall under the English copyright law.

Please make sure, to only use the materials of Archaeopress in the permitted way.

You are allowed to:

- search, view, retrieve and display the licensed material of Archaeopress.
- use print a copy or download / save individual chapter for personal use, where applicable.
- distribute copies of chapters in print or electronic to other people of the institute
- share copies of chapters in print or electronic form to collaborating researchers, but only for the purpose of research or in specific research projects.
Please make sure, that the network is only accessible for the researchers involved in the project.
- use individual chapters for teaching, learning or training at the institute

It is forbidden to:

- remove or alter the authors names, Publishers copyright notice or other means of identification or disclaimers
- systematically make print or electronic copies of multiple extracts or make multiple copies of licensed Archaeopress material for any other purposes, than permitted ones
- prepare derivative works or download, mount or distribute any part of the licensed material from Archaeopress to the Internet or other Networks, other than the Network of the Institute
- reverse engineer, decompile, alter, abridge or otherwise modify the licensed material.
- use the licensed material for any commercial use.
- systematically distribute the whole or any part of the licensed materials.
- publish, distribute or make available the licensed materials, works based on the licensed material or works that combine them with other material.

If you have any questions about the Copyright for the Archaeopress material please contact starkloff@shh.mpg.de